

AIM

(Attendance Improvement Mentoring)

*DuPage County Regional Office of Education*

*Truancy and Student Attendance Department*

Who: Any Elementary, Middle or High School student who is at risk of becoming a chronic truant. (A chronic truant is a student who has 9 or more unexcused absences)

What: After participating in a DROE Truancy and Student Attendance Train the Trainer program, staff members in your building will facilitate the groups.

Where: At your school

When: Day and time TBD based on your building's needs

Why: AIM is an intervention that can be used to improve attendance for students who are chronically absent, chronically tardy or frequently skipping classes. The group is designed to give students the tools needed to create a mindset of making school a priority and attending regularly.
